The Merck Co-Pay Assistance Program is available to eligible, privately insured patients who may need help affording their co-pay on certain Merck oncology medicines.

If you have been prescribed one of the Merck medicines included in the program and you are privately insured, you may be eligible for the Merck Co-Pay Assistance Program if you meet the full program criteria.

Selected Criteria

- The program is not available for all Merck products. Please call the number below to find out if the medicine you have been prescribed is included.
- You must meet the program’s income eligibility criteria.
- Financial assistance is not transferable. Cannot be combined with any coupon, free trial, discount, prescription savings card, or other form of patient financial assistance.
- Financial assistance is not insurance.
- The Merck Co-Pay Assistance Program is valid for patients with private insurance. It is not valid for cash-paying patients or patients covered under Medicaid, Medicare, a Medicare Part D or Medicare Advantage plan (regardless of whether a specific prescription is covered), TRICARE, CHAMPUS, Puerto Rico Government Health Insurance Plan (“Healthcare Reform”), or any other state or federal medical or pharmaceutical benefit program or pharmaceutical assistance program.
- Not valid for residents of Massachusetts.
- The program can be used only by eligible US or Commonwealth of Puerto Rico residents at participating eligible retail or mail-order pharmacies in the United States or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Product must originate in the United States or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.
- Merck reserves the right to rescind, revoke, or amend the offer at any time without notice.
- Financial assistance is provided for up to 12 months of therapy. If necessary, patients must reapply for assistance annually.
- This program may not cover all of your out-of-pocket costs.
- It is illegal to sell, purchase, or trade, or offer to sell, purchase, or trade the financial assistance. Void where prohibited by law, taxed, or restricted.
- There is no guarantee funding will be available in any subsequent year or timeframe.
- Visit merck.com/product/ to view Patient Information and discuss it with your doctor.

For full program criteria or for more information, please call 855-263-1774.