

CULTURAL HUMILITY: THE ESSENCE OF HEALTH CARE

Free Training for Patient Navigators, Nurse Navigators, Social Workers, and CHWs

Presented by Spectrum Health Hospice and Palliative Care

Please join for a training on Cultural Humility. This is a free training that will involve three different 2-hour sessions.

What are the fundamental skills to ensure equitable care for all patients? Learn a three-question framework for approaching complex health care and how one fundamental skill can very directly reduce health care costs, hospital utilization, and most importantly ensure care that aligns with patient and family priorities.

Presenters:

- Dr Simin Beg, MD, MBA, FAAHPM, Division Chief, Spectrum Health Hospice and Palliative Care
- Angela Kinch, RN, BSN Manager, Business and Program Development, Spectrum Health Hospice and Palliative Care
- Lisa VanderWel, LMSW Executive Director, Spectrum Health Hospice and Palliative Care

Sessions

- Tuesday June 8, 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm “The Basis for the Three Questions”
- Tuesday, July 20, 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm “Communication and Family Matters”
- Tuesday August 10, 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm “Cultural Humility and the Three Questions”

How to Register

To receive the log-in information for each session, please complete the links below.

- Tuesday June 8:
<https://events.r20.constantcontact.com/register/eventReg?oeidk=a07ei0gk4qyc67f5dab&oseq=&c=&ch=>
- Tuesday, July 20:
<http://events.constantcontact.com/register/event?llr=wo5eo7qab&oeidk=a07ei0gpg9f8f9dce63>
- Tuesday August 10:
<http://events.constantcontact.com/register/event?llr=wo5eo7qab&oeidk=a07ei0gq45b4df40a1e>

If you have questions or require any kind of assistance or accommodation to fully participate in this training, please contact Audra Putt at putta@michigan.gov by June 3rd so that we can meet your needs.

Brought to you by Michigan's Comprehensive Cancer Control Program with funding support from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.